

A Letter of Faith

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ,

I hope this letter finds you in good health and spirits. As I write to you today, I am reminded of the comforting truth that has carried me through many seasons of life: “God knows the right time, the right place, the right person and the right answer to our prayers.” (Ecclesiastes 3:11). This simple yet profound assurance has the power to renew our hope and strengthen our faith when we face uncertainty or despair.

Life often leads us down paths we never anticipated. There are times when we pray and wait, wishing for answers or change, and it seems as though nothing is happening. In those moments, it is natural to feel restless or even discouraged. Yet, it is exactly then that we must remember God's infinite wisdom and loving care. He sees what we cannot, and He orchestrates every detail for our ultimate good. Just as the sunrise comes at its perfect moment, so too do God's blessings unfold in our lives at the appointed time.

Consider the stories of faith throughout history—how Abraham trusted when he did not understand, how Joseph endured trials before rising to leadership, and how Esther was placed exactly where she needed to be to fulfill a divine purpose. Each one learned that God's timing is flawless, His placement intentional, and His answers perfectly tailored to our needs. We may not always comprehend His plan, but we can be certain that He is working behind the scenes, preparing us, shaping us, and positioning us for what's to come.

If you are waiting for an answer to your prayers right now, I encourage you to be patient and remain faithful. Trust that God knows the desires of your heart and has already prepared the solution, the opportunity, or the person you need. His plan is never late, and it is always exactly what is best for you. In the meantime, continue to seek Him, thank Him for His presence, and allow your heart to rest in His promises.

Remember that you are never alone. God is with you in every moment, guiding your steps, providing strength, and filling your life with hope. Let this truth fill you with peace today: “God knows the right time, the right place, the right person and the right answer to our prayers.” Hold onto this promise with unwavering faith, and you will see His goodness revealed in unexpected and beautiful ways.

With encouragement and continued prayers for you,
